

Lunch Box

- Hiroshima -

Shigeru Orimen, a 1st year student at the Hiroshima Prefecture Daini Middle School, was exposed to the atomic bomb and died while working at a building demolition worksite. Early in the morning of August 9, his mother found his body with this charred-black lunch box clutched under his stomach.

Distance from Hypocenter: 600m
Donated by Shigeko Orimen
Source: Hiroshima Peace Museum